

Our letter of the 12th inst crossed in which the sum of 1/- was returned to you, crossed with yours arriving here on the 13th in which you forwarded the sum of one shilling to complete the balance of the fee 2/- necessary to cover ^{the} cost of a copy extract from the CRs 1851 showing your age. The sum of one shilling therefore stands now to your credit in this case and the copy extract will be forwarded to you on receipt of the remaining one shilling.
