ttds of 1851. The only other means that remains for tracing the home of the claimant is the OS map for Co Sligo, & for this purpose your direction that Freeheen is about 20 miles from Ballymote is not of much assistance. Can you obtain more definite particulars from the village of Ballymote, and in what direction does it lie? What were the names of the ttds surrounding Freeheen? Did his home stand near some easily distinguishable object such as a river or mill? If you cannot state the exact name of the townland in which P.H. lived in '51, will you kindly give the names of surrounding ttds & the distance & direction of from his home to Ballymote so that it may be traced on an OS Map.
