 There seems to be no townland called Gleann in the Civil Parish of Drumcolumb. With regard to the places Culmore and Trumilane mentioned in your first letter, no trace has been found of them in any Index or on the Ordnance Survey Map. If you would describe their exact position, the names of the townlands that surround them and the distance from them to Riverstown, perhaps they could be found on the map. In the names in Licerill this case you should return the
