Memo
with reference to your application of recd. here the 16th inst., we beg to inform you that search has been made in the CRs of 1851 for the Town & Tld of Ballygawley Co. Tyrone, but as you have omitted to give the names of your parents no satisfactory report can be furnished as to the result of the search. Please note that you should be at least 64 years of age at present for your name to be found in the CRs of 1851, which are the latest & enclosed you will find a circular re P. of A. in Ireland to which we direct your attention. We could not undertake to search the CRs for a large city like Armagh; it is necessary for you to give the name of the street in which you lived in ^{March} 1851 when the Census was taken. If you are a member of the late established (Protestant) Church of Ireland search could also be made in the Par: Regt. of that church now in the custody of this Dept.
