~~with ref. to your letter of the 20th ult. in which you stated that a P.O. for 2/- was enclosed to cover cost of Census Extract showing your age, the S.H. reports that the P.O. had not been received. Your letter was one of a number of letters from which the remittances were abstracted when this office was in possession of the Rebels & the Military. It was found lying open on the floor when the staff of this office resumed possession. You should at once notify the Post Master General of what has happened stating the number~~
