memo
We regret to inform you that search cannot be made for a record of your father's age until you forward more definite particulars as to his place of residence in March 1851 when the Census was taken. "Borough Lane, Co Donegal" cannot be identified as a unit of enumeration at the time of the Census. You should give all the particulars available to help us to locate its position on an Ordnance map. Could you not mention some place of importance in the neighbourhood? or some of the places villages or hamlets surrounding? You mention Stranorlar and Strabane, could you give its distances & direction from either of these towns? Please forward a m. o. for 2/- with your application.
Please also note that if your father is only about 63 years of age at present, his name would not appear in the C. R's of 1851 - which Census was taken 65 years ago and the Returns for which are the latest available for search in this Dept. See Circulars enclosed re O. of A. in Ireland
