In applying for a Census list you should be careful to state the name of the townland (village or hamlet) in which Maria Pendergrass was living on 30 Mar 1851 when the census was taken. Neither Santfield nor Byman is the name of a townland in Co Waterford. If she is unable to state the exact name, she should at least describe the exact position of her then home, its distance & direction from the nearest market town, the names of the townlands adjoining. This would help us to trace it on an Ordnance Survey map.
